

„Don't tell me you can't dance“

by Mike Batt*

Don't tell me there are no steps you can take
Don't tell me there is no difference you can make
Don't turn away and don't ever say
There's no chance, like you never tried
To tell me you can't dance

It seems the easy thing to say
You think it can't be done
That thing will never fly
When there's a chance
To turn away
Or give it one more time
Don't try to learn the way to turn
Go with your feelings every time

Don't tell me there are no steps you can take
Don't tell me there is no difference you can make
Don't turn away and don't ever say
There's no chance, like you never tried
To tell me you can't dance
